CENTRAL WEST LAW SOCIETY

APPLICATION FOR BURSARY AND STUDENT PRIZE 2012

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Employee of a law firm or government department in the Central West Law Society region; and
2. Studying a law qualification at an Australian University or College of Law or Solicitors Admission Board course.

The CWLS Bursary is open to students who work in a Central West firm / department during the entire year whilst undertaking study. The Bursary Fund is up to a potential maximum of $2,500 per annum, with the total sum to be awarded in each year, and the division of funds between successful applicants, to be determined by the Bursary Committee. The successful applicant(s) will be determined on academic merit and personal circumstances.

The CWLS student prize is open to students who work in a Central West firm / department on a casual or temporary basis during their university studies. Applicants must show some period of employment in the year 1 March 2011 to 29 February 2012. The successful applicant(s) will be determined on academic merit and will receive up to a potential $350. This amount may be divided between multiple applicants at the discretion of the Bursary Committee.

Applications close Friday 16 March 2012

FULL NAME:.....

ADDRESS: .....

.....

EMAIL: .....

EMPLOYER: .....

INSTITUTION / COURSE: .....

.....

APPLICATION FOR: __ Bursary ___ Student Prize

Please attach:

- Confirmation of enrolment for 2012;
- Proof of employment;
- Academic results for subjects completed (for 2nd or later year students); and
- Brief outline of personal circumstances [no more than one typed page] (relevant information could include financial circumstances, family situation, community involvement and/or difficulties relating to studies).

Return to:
Central West Law Society
PO Box 33
BATHURST NSW 2795

Please indicate how you heard about this bursary / prize (tick all that apply):

__ Information from employer __ Newspaper advertisement __ Other .....