

2022 International Women's Day Event

Wednesday 16 March 2022 – 8.00am – 9.00am

Katrina Rathie

Non-Executive Director, BUBS Australia,
Starlight Children's Foundation
Australia, NSW Rugby Union/Waratahs, Cranbrook School

Katrina Rathie is a Non-Executive Director and enjoyed a distinguished 35 year career in the law. She was Partner in Charge, Sydney at law firm King & Wood Mallesons from 2014 – 2021, where she broke the bamboo ceiling by being the first Asian Australian to lead the Sydney office of a top tier professional services firm. Katrina is the NSW Patron of the Asian Australian Lawyers Association and previously served on the NSW Law Society's Diversity & Inclusion Committee. She is proud to be a role model and champion for a more diverse, inclusive and multicultural Australia.

Katrina was named the Overall Winner of the Board & Management category in the most recent AFR 100 Women of Influence List (2019) recognised for her outstanding contributions to leadership in the law, advancement of gender and cultural diversity across Australia and Asia.

Katrina is a Non-Executive Director of Bubs Australia (ASX: BUB), Starlight Children's Foundation Australia and NSW Rugby Union/Waratah's Rugby. She is Vice President of Cranbrook School Council, Chair of the Cranbrook Foundation and an Advisory Board member of Media Diversity Australia. She serves on the Advisory Board for UNSW Law & Justice and the Culture Strategy Committee of the University of Sydney. Katrina holds a Commerce (Accounting & Financial Management)/Law degree from UNSW.

She is a Fellow of the AICD and a member of Chief Executive Women.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES