

Personal Injury

Thursday 17 August 2023

Session 1 – 9.45am – 10.45am

CTP: Developments in court and commission decisions

The Motor Accidents Injuries Act 2017 (NSW) was introduced to overhaul the compulsory third-party compensation scheme in NSW and continues to be reviewed and refined, including several statutory changes that came into effect in April this year. As the scheme matures, Peter Hunt will discuss trends evident in Court and Commission decision-making relating to liability, quantum and judicial review.

Meet the speaker

Peter Hunt, Principal, McCabes

Peter Hunt is the Practice Group Leader of the Statutory Insurance Group at McCabes, specialising in compulsory third party insurance (CTP). In 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022, Peter's team was recognised by Doyle's Guide as a First Tier Defendant CTP Team, based on client and peer feedback. In the same years, Peter was recognised by Doyle's Guide as either a Leading or a Pre-Eminent Defendant CTP Lawyer. Peter has been the driving force behind the Proper Lookout Podcast series. Peter is an Accredited Specialist in Personal Injury and a member of the Law Society of New South Wales' Injury & Compensation Committee.