

Personal Injury

Friday 16 August 2024

Session 10 – 11:55am - 12:55pm

Public liability: A year in review

This session will include a review of notable decisions and developments over the preceding year in public liability decisions. Not only will the key principles and take aways be summarised, participants will also benefit from a discussion about the practicalities of each case.

Meet the speaker

Brendan Jones, Barrister, 9 Windeyer Chambers

Brendan Jones has significant experience in common law and has practised as a Senior Associate at a national insurance law firm. He has practised in the areas of employment, debt recovery, professional negligence and medical negligence, and specialises in CTP, public liability and work injury damages matters. Brendan has previously served as a member of the New Barristers' Committee of the New South Wales Bar Association.