

Business Law

Thursday 15 August 2024

Session 6 – 4:00pm - 5:00pm

Business succession planning

Hear from Denis Barlin, a Doyle's Guide-recommended barrister, about issues relating to business succession planning. Topics covered will include transferring wealth and control held subject to a trust, asset protection, and taxation.

Meet the speaker

Denis Barlin, Barrister, 13 Wentworth Chambers

Denis Barlin advises on all aspects of revenue law, including income tax, capital gains tax, goods and services tax and state taxes generally. As well as taxation, he provides advice on trusts and estates, superannuation, asset protection, succession planning and Corporations Act matters, including the Australian financial services licensing and disclosure provisions. The scope of his practice includes advisory work, and attendance on transactions and disputes. He also conducts litigation in state and Federal courts and tribunals. His clients and referrers include various accounting and legal practices as well as financial planning groups. Denis is a Member of the Taxation Institute of Australia New South Wales Education Committee and of the Taxation Institute of Australia ACT Education Committee. Denis is also a Member of the Society of Trusts and Estate Practitioners, a published researcher, and a regular speaker for various professional associations and educational institutions.